SO MUCH DIFFERENT

English and American Trials Compared by Judge Davis.

TRIAL FINISHED IN SIX HOURS

Judge Davis Sat Alongside British Judge In A Murder Trial At London And Was Surprised At Celerity With Which It Was Concluded.

NEW YORK, July 26.—A London dispatch to the Times quite lengthily quotes Justice Vernon M. Davis of the New York Supreme Court on the difference between American and English criminal trials, to the disparagement of the former. Justice Davis, it will be remembered, presided at the second trial of Nan Patterson, the chorus girl for the murder of Caesar Young, the turfman. His remarks followed his witnessing in the Central Criminal Court, London, the trial of John Smith and "Chicago May" Churchill for the attempted murder of Edward Guerin, of Devils Island fame. Justice Davis sat on the bench with Mr. Justice Darling and saw Smith sentenced to life imprisonment and the Churchill woman to 15 years imprisonment in a trial of scarcely six hours.

Justice Davis was asked if he thought such a speedy trial would be possible in America. To this question Justice Davis replied:—"Not under the present circumstances. There are two principal considerations which militate against such celerity. The first of these is in connection with the selection of the jury. Everyone in America reads the newspapers—not one, but many. When a sensational case arises the papers deal with the whole matter in the minutest detail long before the case is called. Because of that it is almost impossible to get together 12 men who have not studied the case and reached a judgment unflinching them for service as jurors."

"How different here in England. Today's case had all the elements of a sensation, yet the jury was selected in exactly two minutes. In my opinion the only way to meet the jury problem in the United States is to permit the presiding magistrate to select the jury with of course, the advice of counsel in the case."

"Undoubtedly, however, the chief factor in expediting trials here is the absence of appeals. This does away with the constant interruptions arising out of counsel."

"The chief purpose of the objections is, of course, to obtain material for a successful appeal. As there is no appellate division here there are practically no objections and the trial proceeds rapidly and smoothly."

HANGED AT WARSAW.

MOSCOW, July 25.—Madame Fromkina, accused of several attempted assassinations was hanged here today. Last May she attempted to kill General Rheinbot, former prefect of police and inspector of prisons, where she was confined. She refused to ask for clemency.

Long Live the King

is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says, "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the proven remedy. Guaranteed by Charles Rogers, druggist. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

SAILED FOR THE ORIENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The steamer Siberia, which sailed this afternoon for the orient, carried a number of prominent people as passengers, including Secretary of Commerce and Labor Strauss, Congressman and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth of Ohio; Governor Carter of Hawaii; Commanders Hughes and Sears and Lieutenant-Commander Gillis of the United States Navy and Government Inspectors of Steam Vessels Bulger and Bolles.

G.B. Burhahs testifies After Four Years. G. B. Burhahs, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

HIGHBINDER MURDER.

Chinese Woman In Stockton, Cruelly Murdered At Her Home.

STOCKTON, Cal., July 26.—Minnie Wong, wife of a prominent Chinaman was murdered this (Friday) morning by a highbinder at her home on east Main Street. She was stabbed in dozens of places and from the condition of the room must have made a desperate fight for her life. She conducted a small store in the business section outside of Chinatown and no one was near to render assistance. The highbinder is believed to be Chang Jan, who had her arrested and taken to San Jose some years ago on a trumped up charge, to get possession of her. He was convicted of perjury and sentenced to San Quentin. Two days ago he was released.

The Charming Woman

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clear smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at Charles Rogers, druggist. 50c.
